

Can You Read Japanese?

These Mass intentions were left for a priest after a Mass celebrated in Japan. Can you tell what they mean? (Answer: One is a request for Mass to be offered for the souls lost in the recent Tsunami, the other is for deceased family members).

Joy in Suffering

Rose Hu

In the Shanghai dialect, the word joy is the same as deer. That explains the deer on the cross, the cross, the crown, the heart, the life, with the agility of a deer, is still keeping freely in the love of God, transforming rolling waves of sorrow into joy, until the present moment.
