

Appeal For Filipino Typhoon Victims

The Society of St Pius X of the District of Asia is making a world-wide appeal on behalf of the victims for the recent super-typhoon 'Yolanda' that has just hit the Philippines on 7th November 2013.

Described as the worst typhoon known in history, with winds reaching 330km per hour, it has had the same devastating effects as the tsunami of 2004. The island of Leyte, in particular, and its capital city of Tacloban have been the worst hit.

The number of dead caused by this typhoon is estimated in the thousands. All the houses of this city have been severely damaged or are gone.

The Society of St. Pius X too has been directly affected: we have lost our Tacloban chapel and the missionary car, stationed at the chapel; many of our faithful have lost their houses. We do not yet know if some of our faithful have died in the disaster due to a complete breakdown in communications.

Please come to their help! This historical typhoon has come just weeks after a 7.2 earthquake hit the Philippines, with its epicenter on the island of Bohol. One of our priest lost his parents' house as a result of this quake. This appeal is made on the feast of the great St. Martin who did come to the rescue of a poor man in need.

You Can Help

First by your prayers! That all those who have been affected may have the patience and fortitude to bear this heavy cross. That the others may have great charity and liberality to come to their rescue.

Then by your donations. For these, you can either go through the various districts and chapels of the Society of St. Pius X world-wide (who will in turn pass it on to us), or send the funds directly to us in one of our various bank accounts. Please mention "FOR THE TYPHOON VICTIMS OF THE PHILIPPINES".
